

A woman with reddish-brown hair styled in a bun, wearing a long-sleeved, floor-length purple dress with a gathered waist. She is standing in a room with vibrant red walls and intricate floral and architectural patterns. Her right hand is raised towards a decorative element on the wall. The overall style is reminiscent of early 20th-century decorative arts.

As a Patron you create impact. Your support helps us to provide great art, culture and heritage in Carlisle and Cumbria, creating opportunities, experiences and learning for all

We use our buildings and collections to tell stories, explore the world around us and transform lives.

Tullie House Museum and Art Gallery is one of Carlisle and Cumbria's greatest cultural assets. It is a museum and art gallery which bridges the global and the local, that is renowned for the quality of its collections, exhibitions and engagement programme.

Your support helps us to care for the collections which are the catalyst underpinning all of this activity.

Together we can create a museum fit for the 21st Century, a museum that unleashes creativity, is curatorially informed and audience focused.

Tullie House is a community resource that is loved by thousands of people across the city and beyond

Our Patrons understand the immense value of learning about and engaging with collections.

They understand the need to record and preserve stories from the past, to share the present and to shape the future. Our Patrons appreciate and explore world culture, history, science and the arts through local, national and international perspectives. Our Patrons understand and value culture and the role it can play in changing people's lives, and they want to play a part in making this happen.

As a Patron, you can contribute as much as you wish.

As well as unlimited admission for you and a guest to the museum, we offer the opportunity to dine with the Museum Director; the chance to access rarely-seen collections through a behind-the-scenes visit; invitations to exhibition previews; select engagements with Trustees, partners and lenders; and take part in significant conversations about the future vision of the museum.

Patron donations begin at £500 per year or £700 for joint Patrons

Enhanced donations, either through financial or in-kind are welcome
